

Join us for the first annual OAL Golf Invitational to support middle school sports in the Oakland Unified School District

The Oakland Athletic League provides sports to all middle and high school kids in OUSD. OAL was once a thriving competitive community of athletes. Kids need opportunities to be active and learn life skills now more than ever. Join us for a fun afternoon at Chabot golf course to help raise funds and celebrate OAL. All registration fees and sponsorships go towards creating a middle school budget that will ensure access, equity, and a greater sense of community for all students.
